

Olimpico Jazz Contest 2022

CONTEST REGULATIONS

Section 1: Best soloist: double bass

PREMISE

In 2022 marks the centenary of the birth of two important figures in the jazz history: Charles Mingus and Oscar Pettiford, both double bass players. The second edition of OJC will therefore be dedicated to double bass.

ART. 1.1 | 2022 CONTEST

The international jazz festival "New Conversations - Vicenza Jazz", promotes the first edition of the Olimpico Jazz Contest (OJC), in partnership with the magazine "Musica Jazz". The contest is open to young jazz soloists from the EU.

ART. 1.2 | WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

Double-bass player living in the EU, aged between 18 and 30 at the date of December 31st, 2021. Entrants cannot already be signed with a record or editorial company.

ART. 1.3 | ENTRIES

Registration to the contest will be open from the publication date to December 31st, 2021, at 23.59 (Central European Time).

ART. 1.4 | HOW TO REGISTER

Participants can enter the competition on the website www.vicenzajazz.org not later than December 31st, 2021. Registration is free. Under penalty of exclusion, participants shall:

- fill in the registration form, providing the following data:
 - name, surname and personal data of the soloist.
 - contact details (phone number, e-mail addresses)
- attach copy of the participant's valid id and two current photos.
- upload a text with titles, authors and length of the uploaded tracks and any links to the videos (see next)
- upload 3 (three) .mp4 files – preferably in trio (see art 1.5 - Second Round) identical to those linked in case of on-line publication. One of these must be a Mingus or Pettiford composition.

It is recommended that the three pieces present different formal typologies and time indications;

For the original pieces, the competitor must send to OJC email a pdf with the score in Key Concert containing melody, structure, chords and/or sufficient indications for the musicians involved. This material will allow to automatically participate in section 2 (for the best composition).

- tick the appropriate box and state that the tracks entered are not owned in any part by a music or editorial publishing company. That statement will be waiving the organization from all direct and indirect responsibility.
- tick the appropriate box in order to accept the contest rules and consent to the processing of personal data (Italian Law 196/03 and European Regulation 679/2016).

ART. 1.5 | HOW THE CONTEST WORKS

ART. 1.11 | ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONTEST REGULATIONS AND LIABILITY

Entrants agree to the full acceptance of the present regulations. All participants agree to release the organization from direct or indirect liability to third parties who may feel aggrieved by their performance or misrepresentations about the authorship of the tracks. Entrants also allow the organization to have their name associated with the name or the record label of the contest promoter, as well as of its commercial and media partners. The organizer assumes no liability for accidents, thefts or other damages involving the participants or third parties before, during and after the event for reasons beyond the organization's control.

ART. 1.12 | AUTHORISATION FOR AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDINGS

By accepting the present regulations, participants allow the organization to make audio/video recordings of the contest. Participants declare that they will have nothing to claim from the organization for the distribution of audio/video recordings, made both by the organization and by the festival media partners (tv or radio stations, photographers, web partners). This does not affect the intellectual property rights of the songwriter(s) or their SIAE (Italian Society of Authors and Publishers) - or any other copyright agency - registration at their own initiative, expense, obligation and responsibility.

ART. 1.13 | PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

The use of personal data will be handled in accordance with privacy regulations, specifically Article 13 of Italian Legislative Decree No. 196/2003 on privacy protection provisions and Article 13 of Regulations EU 2016/679. For further information, please read the Privacy Policy.

ART. 1.14 | AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES

The Organization reserves the right to intervene in these regulations, making additions and/or changes that may be necessary for artistic, technical, or organizational reasons. Due to force majeure, the Organization may also make changes to the general structure of the Contest. Any modification will in any case be promptly communicated online, on the website www.vicenzajazz.org, as well as directly to the competitors themselves.

ART. 1.15 | RESTRICTIONS AND EXCLUSIONS

Anyone who collaborates in any way with the organization of the Contest and the Festival is excluded from taking part in the contest, as well as any relatives of the members of the artistic and/or technical panels of judges, the staff of New Conversations Vicenza Jazz and the Contest organizers. In the event of such a conflict or any other infringements which might invalidate the legality of the Contest, the organization may take the appropriate measures at any time to protect the correct conduct of the competition.
